On the state level...

All not-for-profit applicants must now pre-qualify on the NYS Grants Reform website at grantsreform.ny.gov/grantees in order to apply for certain New York State grant solicitations. Potential not-for-profit applicants are strongly encouraged to begin the process of registering and pre-qualifying immediately as this is a lengthy process.

New York State Department of Health

The New York State Department of Health is seeking proposals for the New York State Smokers Quitline. Applicants will provide telephonic and internet-based information and services to assist New Yorkers in quitting tobacco use. The awardee will be expected to deliver five necessary components to assist New Yorkers with smoking cessation, including a Statewide Tobacco Cessation Quitline, a NYS Smoker's Quitsite, Quitline Marketing and Outreach, Nicotine Replacement Therapy Storage and Shipment Services and Quality Improvement and Evaluation in order to accomplish the organization's goal of administering a comprehensive tobacco control program focused on policy and health systems change in order to reduce the negative impact of tobacco use in New York.

- Eligibility: Organizations with at least three years' experience in providing tobacco cessation call center and web-based tobacco cessation services are eligible to apply.
- Funding: $4.5 million will be awarded annually for five years.
- Deadline: July 14, 2016

On the federal level...

National Institutes of Health

The National Institutes of Health is seeking applications for the Advancing HIV Therapeutic Vaccine Science program. Grants will be awarded to applicants who are seeking to advance the understanding of vaccine regimens and immune responses that sustainably suppress viral loads in HIV-infected individuals. Applicants should propose clinical trials designed to identify correlations between levels of induced immune response and HIV virologic control. Substantial evidence suggests immune responses can reduce viral loads in HIV-infected persons. However, robust correlates of immune-mediated viral loads control in HIV-infected humans have yet to be identified. The goal of this funding opportunity announcement is to support research that will advance understanding of vaccine regimens and immune responses that sustainably suppress viral loads in HIV-infected individuals.

- Eligibility: Higher education institutions, nonprofit organizations, for-profit organizations, state and local governments and others are eligible to apply.
- Funding: $3.6 million will fund two to three awards.

Department of Health and Human Services

The Department of Health and Human Services is seeking applications for their Grants to Address Trafficking within the Child Welfare Population program. The purpose of this funding opportunity announcement (FOA) is to solicit proposals for projects that will address human trafficking within the child welfare population. This FOA is designed to continue the development of child welfare systems' response to human trafficking through infrastructure building and a multi-system approach with local law enforcement, juvenile justice, court systems, runaway and homeless youth programs, Children's Justice Act grantees, child advocacy centers, and other necessary service providers. Projects will also assist in the implementation of the trafficking provisions of the Preventing Sex Trafficking and Strengthening Families Act within their respective states.

National Institutes of Health

The National Institutes of Health is now accepting applications for studies on Adult Maturation Changes and Dysfunctions in Emotion Regulation. This funding opportunity announcement invites applications for mechanistic research on how age- and sex-related changes in emotion processing develop over the adult life course and how these changes may interact with and inform the understanding of affective dysregulation in adult mental disorders and Alzheimer's disease. In particular, research is sought that will leverage the established normative backdrop of generally improved emotion regulation with aging, as well as research that will expand this evidence base. It is anticipated that studies may identify novel targets for mental health interventions or prevention efforts, or provide clues as to which available intervention strategies might be optimally applied to normalize emotion dysregulation or to strengthen emotional resilience at particular stages of the adult life cycle.

- Eligibility: Nonprofit organizations, higher education institutions, for-profit organizations and government entities are eligible to apply.
- Funding: $4,050,000 will fund approximately eight to 12 R01 and R21 awards.

On the private level...

Woodard & Curran Foundation

The Woodard & Curran Foundation is now accepting applications for its clean water grants program. Proposed projects must promote a clean and sustainable environment (preference will be given to projects that include a defined educational component), include or rely upon volunteers from schools, colleges or the community, demonstrate significant progress on the project defined in the application and support the public at large. Funding is available through one-year grants and three-year grants. One-year grants (Track 1) are dedicated to addressing the problem of water scarcity through science, technology, engineering, arts and math (STEAM) initiatives. Three-year impact grants (Track 2) are committed to funding innovative projects that apply or advance technology to address water issues related to climate change. See the Foundation's website for details: woodardcurranfoundation.org/program.

- Eligibility: Track 1 applicants must be 501(c)(3) nonprofits that meet general eligibility requirements and are located in CA, CT, FL, GA, IL, MA, ME, MI, MO, MT, NH, NJ, NY, PA, RI, TN, UT, VT or WY. Track 2 applicants must be U.S.-based 501(c)(3) nonprofits that meet general eligibility requirements.
- Funding: $16,500 will fund up to three Track 1 grants, with no one grant exceeding $10,000. One Track 2 grant of $100,000 will be awarded, to be dispersed over three consecutive years.
- Deadline: July 1, 2016

National Institute of Health Care Management Foundation

The National Institute of Health Care Management (NIHCM) Foundation is seeking applications for their Journalism Grants program. The NIHCM Foundation supports timely health care journalism that informs efforts to improve the health of Americans and examines emerging health issues and their implications for cost, quality and access. Grants provide funding for health reporting, educational opportunities for health care reporters and support for documentary films and their public engagement campaigns.

- Eligibility: Individual journalists, as well as nonprofit and for-profit organizations and institutions, are eligible to apply.
- Funding: Up to $250,000 will be awarded among six to eight projects.
- Deadline: July 15, 2016
