Eligibility: State Agencies, Counties, Cities, Towns, Villages and the General Public.

Type of Program and Special Restrictions: Requesting technical assistance is optional.

Action Required to Receive Aid: Assistance may be requested from a local regional office. For the address and number of the office that serves your area, call (518) 474-4073.

Description of Aid:

Assistance to local code enforcement personnel including answering specific code questions and assisting with site inspections; assistance to local government officials in establishing or making improvements in code enforcement programs; assistance providing technical and code related information to contractors, architects, engineers, manufacturers and the general public.

Comments:

The Codes Technical Assistance Program provides a variety of services utilizing central office and field based staff. Most technical assistance is directed to specific technical or regulatory questions concerning individual construction projects. Telephone contacts primarily concern technical applications of the code and regulations for its administration and enforcement personnel with plan reviews and inspections. Staff makes frequent presentations to interested groups and regularly attend meetings of regional New York State Building Officials Conference.
