Dear Neighbor,

Here is your 2023 New York City Parking Calendar. It lists the days of the year that certain parking regulations are suspended.

Be sure to read all parking signs carefully. Buckle up, drive safely, and please be mindful of pedestrians, cyclists, and all others who share our roadways. A reminder to be sure to check your car's "blind spots" before you parallel park, or open a driver's side door, and remember that at all hours, bike lanes must remain unobstructed. Please let me know if I can be of help in any matter.

Sincerely,

Robert Carroll

Alternate Side Parking (ASP) or street cleaning rules: Most Alternate Side Parking signs are clearly marked with the “P” symbol with the broom through it. Some signs are the traditional 3-hour ones, but others can vary considerably. Some metered parking zones have Alternate Side Parking rules.

Alternate Side Parking regulations may be suspended from time to time because of snow, inclement weather or other emergencies. Visit nyc.gov/dot or dial 311 for further information. TTY deaf or hearing-impaired, dial 212-504-4115.

When Alternate Side Parking is suspended for a holiday or other reason, the parking meters remain in effect.

Major Legal Holiday rules: The city suspends ASP rules on the legal and religious holidays listed in this brochure. No Stopping, No Standing and No Parking regulations are also suspended, except where those regulations are normally in effect seven days a week (for example: "No Standing Anytime"). Parking meter regulations are also suspended. On all other holidays, only street cleaning rules are suspended.

Get connected: Find out the current alternate side parking status by visiting the NYC311 Online homepage portal.311.nyc.gov, following @NYCASP on Twitter or using the NYC311 app on your mobile device. You can also call 311 to find out if ASP is in effect or suspended.

Parking tickets: Parking tickets may be paid online via CityPay at www.nyc.gov/citypay, using the NYC P-Ticket Pay or Dispute app on your mobile device, by mail (make checks payable to "NYC Department of Finance") or in person at a DOF Business Center.
