Assemblyman Matt Slater wrote a new law providing the largest property tax cut in Putnam County's history.¹

Now, a portion of the county's sales tax will be shared with the county's towns and villages for the first time.

Through this revenue-sharing agreement, Slater's property tax relief bill will fund property tax cuts while investing in critical infrastructure projects in Putnam County communities.

"Putnam Valley would like to thank Assemblyman Matt Slater for moving this bill forward. This is a major step forward in helping our overburdened taxpayers."

— Putnam Valley Town Supervisor Jackie Annabi

"Once again, Assemblyman Matt Slater has delivered meaningful results for the Town of Kent and all of Putnam County."

— Kent Town Supervisor Jaime McGlasson

"These improvements will not only support small business growth but also help reduce the burden on property taxpayers."

— Carmel Town Supervisor Mike Cazzari
