Tague proposes:

SMALL BUSINESS
EMERGENCY RECOVERY ACT
OF 2020

ASSEMBLYMAN CHRIS
Tague

As a former small business owner, Chris knows just how critical local businesses are to our economy. They're places to meet friends, restaurants at which to dine with loved ones, and the mom-and-pop shops you visit after a rough day at work, but now they're in trouble. With the coronavirus pandemic persisting, Chris is proposing the Small Business Emergency Recovery Act of 2020.

The Small Business Emergency Recovery Act of 2020 would:

- Immediately direct the state's settlement reserve fund toward small businesses
- Create a 0% interest loan program dedicated to helping small businesses meet their payroll commitments
- Repurpose available tax credits to help the needs of the state's existing small businesses
- Use all economic development discretionary funding to help existing small businesses within New York State
- Suspend all regulatory fines on small businesses for 180 days
