

Assemblyman Angelo Santabarbara:

Have a plan, be prepared. Every second counts.

 Save the date!
August 31st

“As the father of a son with autism, I know how important it is to be prepared for an emergency. That’s why I’m hosting a special event to help families learn about the tools and resources that can help protect loved ones at risk of wandering.”

433 State St.
Schenectady, NY 12305

PRSRT STD.
U.S. POSTAGE
PAID
ALBANY, NY
PERMIT NO. 75

Join Assemblyman Angelo Santabarbara to learn about Wandering Prevention and Response

In collaboration with the Rotterdam Community Center and the Autism Society of the Greater Hudson Region

Monday, August 31st | 6:30 P.M.
Rotterdam Community Center | 705 Curry Road, Schenectady

Scan the QR code to RSVP
or contact our office at 518-382-2941

This special presentation will cover important topics including:

UNDERSTANDING WANDERING

Learn why it happens

TECHNOLOGY TOOLS & RESOURCES

Explore tools like Project Lifesaver, AngelSense and the Yellow Dot Program

IDENTIFYING RISKS

Recognize triggers and assess dangers

CREATING A SAFETY PLAN

Begin building a personalized wandering safety plan

WATER & COMMUNITY SAFETY

Discover strategies to reduce water-related risks

BUILDING A SUPPORT NETWORK

Connect with people and resources you can count on Questions? Need more information? I'm here to help!

Assemblyman Angelo Santabarbara | 433 State St., Schenectady, NY 12305 | 518-382-2941 | SantabarbaraA@nyassembly.gov