ASSEMBLYWOMAN MARJE BYRNES'

FARMERS' MARKET RESOURCE GUIDE

To better ensure everyone has access to nutritious, affordable, farm fresh food and to support our agricultural community, Assemblywoman Marjorie Byrnes sponsors omnibus legislation known as The NY Food Insecurity, Farm Resiliency and Rural Poverty Act (A.6391). This comprehensive, landmark bill would boost our agriculture sector and better support New York's 10 regional food banks, along with the 4,000 local food pantries and partners helping to feed as many as five million New Yorkers in annual need. This industry contributes more than $5.75 billion to our economy every year, with 98 percent of all farms in our state being family owned. To ensure the future of our food, our farms, and nutrition for everyone, please join Marje in calling on Albany to enact A.6391 now!
