Assembly Hearing Room 1923, 19th Floor
250 Broadway, New York, New York

ORAL TESTIMONY BY INVITATION ONLY

The sealing of criminal convictions has been a critical component of New York's success in reforming its criminal justice system. As a result of sealing, people with records of certain arrests, prosecutions, and convictions are more able to rebuild their lives. The Assembly has a long history of working to remove barriers for individuals who come into contact with the criminal justice system in order to promote successful reentry and reduce recidivism. While the sealing provisions enacted as part of Rockefeller Drug Law reform and Raise the Age legislation marked a significant step forward, the laws have been underutilized. This hearing will examine the reasons why more people have not been able to benefit from the sealing provisions and consider ways to improve and potentially expand the laws.

Youthful offender status may be granted to individuals who are charged with committing a crime while being at least 16 years of age but less than 19. Similar to sealing, youthful offender status removes the stigma of a criminal conviction and allows young people to continue through life unencumbered by a criminal record. While youthful offender status has been an effective reentry tool, there have been calls to expand the law's provisions as well as to allow older youth to benefit. This hearing will examine these proposals and consider how the youthful offender law can be improved.

Persons invited to present testimony to the committees at this hearing should complete and return the enclosed reply form as soon as possible. It is important that the reply form be fully completed and returned so that persons may be notified in the event of emergency postponement or cancellation.
